Synthetic concentrates

885. SHRI DHARAM CHANDER PRASHANT: Will the Minister of INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) whether the synthetic concentrate sales of the Punjab Agro-Pepsi proposal are estimated to be Rs. 15 crores in the 5th year;

(b) whether the imports estimated are Rs. 3.2 crores which has a import duty of 200 per cent making the total value of imports Rs. 9.6 crores (67 per cent of sales value);

(c) what is the provision for ingredients to be used from India, processing charges, advertising, administration etc.;

(d) whether there is any mistake in the estimated value of imports or does it include Royalty, Goodwill etc.; and

(e) since there is an investment of Rs. 5.5 crores in the plant, what manufacturing process is taking place when the imports are 66 per cent of the sales?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT IN THE MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY (SHRI M. ARUNACHALAM): (a) The soft drink concentrate sales in the 5th year of operation are estimated at Rs. 15.3 crores. The concentrates include not only "Cola" drinks, but also a variety of flavours based on natural fruit juice, soya, tea, etc.

(b) and (c) The total imported value of raw materials (not produced indigenously) in the 5th year would be Rs. 3.2 crores. With import duties and local value added, the ex-factory value of prouction is estimated at Rs. 15.3 crores, the break-up being as under:—

	Rs. (Crores)
Imported raw materials (CNF)	3.2
Local value added	6.3
Ex-factory value; excluding import duty	9.5
Import duty (at 180%)	5.8
Total ex-factory value of production	15.3
